Online Short-Term Programme: Vidya Vaibhavam-
Integrating Bharatiya Scriptures & Bharatiya
Knowledge Tradition into Humanities and Social Science Education
(21-09-2026 to 27-09-2026)

Objectives:

Online Short term Programme aims to orient participants towards integrating Bharatiya scriptures and the Bharatiya Knowledge Tradition into humanities and social science education, enabling them to draw upon indigenous wisdom, ethical values and time-tested leadership principles for enriching contemporary curricula and classroom practice.

Coverage:

The programme introduces the philosophical and ethical foundations of Bharatiya Knowledge Systems and their relevance to modern humanities and social science. It explores leadership, governance and value-based decision-making drawn from scriptures such as the Ramayana and Mahabharata, and texts like the Arthashastra and different Samhitas. It also covers practical frameworks for embedding Bharatiya thought into course design, pedagogy and NEP 2020 aligned curricula.

Pedagogy:

A blended online approach combining interactive lectures, textual illustrations and guided discussions. Participants will engage with case studies drawn from the scripture, collaborative reflection and hands-on exercises in curriculum mapping. Continuous feedback and peer interaction will ensure active learning and meaningful integration of Bharatiya knowledge into teaching practice.
